1 THE NUTS AND BOLTS OF DIVORCE

Friday, May 8, 2009 ♦ 9 am–12 noon

Instructors: Hal Bartholomew and Chandra Miller

Discover valuable information about legal separations and the dissolution process. If you counsel separating couples, learn how to address the emotional impact, ethical and practical realities faced by individuals.

2 CHILD CUSTODY: PLAY FAIR AND LEARN TO SHARE

Friday, May 15, 2009 ♦ 9 am–12 noon

Instructor: Diane Wasznicky

Examine different types of child custody and visitation possibilities that help professionals who counsel parents. Learn legal terminology and their definitions as well as parenting plans in the child's best interests.

3 THE DOLLARS AND SENSE OF CHILD SUPPORT

Friday, May 29, 2009 ♦ 9 am–12 noon

Instructor: Chandra Miller and Raquelle Vernon

Understand the latest court rules and laws regarding support awards and how they affect the ability to provide for a child's financial needs. Learn about statewide child support guidelines and how to modify or enforce a support order.

4 DIVORCE WITH RESPECT

Friday, June 5, 2009 ♦ 9 am–12 noon

Instructor: Hal Bartholomew

Divorce can be difficult and painful, particularly when children are involved. Learn how mediation and collaborative practice—covering property, financial and support as well as ethical issues—eases conflicts and helps separating couples develop mutually acceptable agreements.

Complete and mail registration form with payment by check or credit card.
