About Bartholomew & Wasznicky LLP

Bartholomew & Wasznicky LLP, the region's largest Family Law firm, offers over 90 years of combined experience in California family law. In addition to handling family law matters in the traditional way, we emphasize and encourage using alternate dispute resolution techniques, including collaborative practice and divorce mediation, as a means to a less contentious, non-court-involved proceeding. Our philosophy is based on the idea of "divorce with respect". We stay current with family law matters through ongoing continuing education and by maintaining memberships in many professional legal organizations.

Hal D. Bartholomew, co-founder of Bartholomew & Wasznicky, has been practicing family law for over 30 years and is currently president of the Sacramento Collaborative Practice Group and part of their training team. He has been a Certified Family Law Specialist since certification commenced in 1980. He also co-teaches a full-day course, Tax Consequences of Divorce, and for the California CPA Education Foundation.

Chandra E. Miller, who will co-present this course, has made family law her specialty since 2005. She understands that divorce is an extremely difficult transition in a person's life and is dedicated to assisting her clients with compassion and professional advocacy.

This course is offered to help the financial professional understand process options and basic issues of divorce. Topics include custody, support, property division, tax consequences, retirement division, and how these issues may affect their clients.
